

WEEK OF CARING PROJECTS
SEPTEMBER 9TH – SEPTEMBER 16TH

A WEEK TO GIVE BACK. A WEEK TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE. A WEEK TO LIVE UNITED.

Legal Services of SC Michigan – Shannon - 734-241-8310 - Free clinic (attorneys) with intake by volunteers from Monroe County Employment & Training will do intake forms on September 9, 2011

MCOP – Stephanie or Jeff - 734-241-2775 – Mobile Food Pantry project – 10:00am-2:00pm – Sept. 9, 2011

Habitat for Humanity – 734-243-2048 – Special Project

Frenchtown Senior Center – Mary Ann Mack - 734-243-6210 – In need of someone to come to the center for music, art or read poetry/short story activities.

Mon-Arc of Monroe County – 734-241-5881 – Needs volunteers to take some of the people they serve to community dinners, shopping and to other community activities such as ball games or church. Also perhaps some people to help go into apartments and do some heavy cleaning. In the event that you have people who would like to do indirect services we could use some help with distributing printed materials in the community.

The Salvation Army – 734-241-0440 – Painting and landscaping projects done at the Family Manor Shelter.

American Red Cross – 734-289-1481 – Maintenance and a large painting project.

World's Largest Beach Cleanup – Gerald Wagler - gwagler99@yahoo.com – Saturday, September 17, 2011 – 9:00am – 12:00pm

Child Care Network – Lynn Gluvna – 734-243-7451 – August 27, 2011 – Crib Exchange. Volunteers needed to assist with dismantling of old cribs and assembling new cribs for distribution. This project is in conjunction with the Great Starts Program. Must be able to lift 35 – 50 pounds.

Bedford Senior Activity Center – Dianne Carroll – 734-856-3330 – September 15th the Quilters will host a “Sew In” from 9:00am – 12:00pm. “Tummy Mats” for babies that will be donated to a program sponsored by the Monroe County ISD. Lap quilts ready to be tied will also be available for veterans confined to wheelchairs.